

2017 Summer Reading Grade 9 English I and Honors English I

Summer Reading Purpose Statement

Literacy involves reading, writing, speaking, listening and thinking. As we prepare our students for the skills needed to be successful in the 21st Century, it is important that we provide opportunities for our students to engage in the activities that will help to build this literacy skill set. Reading over the summer is a good way to practice English and prepare to participate in a shared literacy community in the fall.

High School Summer Reading Requirements

Each student reads a minimum of 2 books during the summer.

- ♣ One book is a shared read by students enrolled in the course as listed. The shared read text is relevant, conducive to making connections with the curriculum and serves as an anchor text to which the teacher and students can refer in order to provide depth and understanding to a variety of class discussions throughout the year. This common entry point in the fall will support a positive classroom literacy community beginning in the opening days of school.
- ♣ An additional book is chosen by the student to read.

By asking students to read over the summer, we believe that we can help to develop a lifelong habit of reading.

Student Assignment

1. Read the shared read book for your 2017-2018 course.
2. Refer to the guiding questions provided with each title and consider while reading.
3. Jot down thoughts related to the guiding questions.
4. Select another book of your choice to read that is of an appropriate topic and reading level.
5. Have your parents sign the attached permission form approving the title and completion of the independent book choice. Return the permission form in the fall.
6. Be prepared to participate in classroom writing and discussions revolving around the summer reading in the fall.

Students should be prepared to take part in organized response and classroom work with summer reading books immediately upon return to school in the fall. Any assessment will count for no more than 10% of the student's first quarter grade.

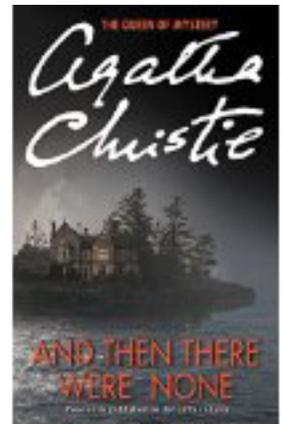

Your teacher may provide information about book sales before the end of school.

Grade 9: English I and Honors English I

And Then There Were None* by Agatha Christie

ISBN: 978-0062073488

Summary:

Considered one of the best mystery novels ever written by many readers, And Then There Were None is the story of ten strangers, each lured to Indian Island by a mysterious host. Once the guests have arrived, the host accuses each person of murder. Unable to leave the island, the guests begin to share their darkest secrets - until they begin to die.

Questions:

1. Throughout the novel, the author uses different characters to tell the story. Why does Christie choose to use different perspectives?
2. The effect of guilt is one of the major themes of the novel. Based on the characters in the book and your own personal experiences, how do people respond differently to guilt? How do the characters' responses compare to those of people in real life?
3. Think about the idea of "justice" in this unique mystery. Did the characters "get what they deserved," or were any of them punished unfairly?
4. What characteristics create a compelling mystery? Which of these characteristics are evident in this novel? Which characteristics do you believe are lacking?

Independent summer Reading Parent/Guardian Permission Form

All Dublin City Schools secondary students are required to read a book of their choice over the summer as part of our summer reading program. This book may be fiction or nonfiction, classic or contemporary, serious or funny.

We would like students to consider books that will be appropriate for a school setting and sufficiently challenging in terms of reading level. Students will have an opportunity to share this summer read with other students in the class during the first week of school.

All students are expected to bring this permission form to their English teachers on the first day of school.
