Family Connection allows you to:

- Explore careers and find out how your interests can match up with occupations by clicking on the “careers” tab and under the headings “explore careers” and then to “explore careers & clusters” or the heading “what are my interests” and complete any of the 3 surveys
- Receive informational e-mails from the School Counseling Department
- Enable us to share information with you from the School Counseling Dept. about upcoming events under “updates”
- Set goals and make to do lists under the “about me” heading
- Sign up for college visits : Check out the upcoming college visits, go to the “College” tab and then go to “Upcoming College Visits”. Students are able to sign up and attend college visits at their high school with college admission counselors that will be coming to the Dublin High Schools. Every Fall, over 90+ college admission counselors will be here to answer questions you have about their college/university
- Research Colleges Under the “colleges” tab click on “college compare” and “supermatch college search”
- Create a list of colleges you are interested in by adding them to the “colleges I’m thinking about” link
- Research and apply for Scholarship Opportunities Under the “colleges” tab click on “scholarships & money” then click on “scholarship list” for scholarships that we have received through our counseling office or “national scholarship search”
- Research and apply for Enrichment Opportunities Under the “colleges” tab click on “enrichment programs” to explore opportunities to explore your interest through camps/workshops
