

Dublin City Schools is opening two new elementary schools for the fall of 2020 and a middle school in the fall of 2021 to allow us to continue to grow! Because of the new schools, redistricting will take place starting this fall and it will impact all elementary and middle schools in the District. To learn more about redistricting, please read the Frequently Asked Questions and answers below.

General Redistricting Questions

Q. What is redistricting?

Redistricting is a term that means changing school attendance boundaries.

Q. Who makes the redistricting decisions?

By Ohio law, the Superintendent of schools assigns students to their buildings.

Q. What is the redistricting process and when does it start?

The redistricting process will start this fall and will be shared with our community as we move forward. Redistricting for the fall of 2020 for elementary and the fall of 2021 for middle school, will be completed by winter break, providing families plenty of time to adjust to new attendance boundaries.

Q. Why is redistricting necessary?

Our current schools are overcrowded it will allow us to reset all of our K-8 buildings to more optimal enrollment numbers.

Q. What type of redistricting will take place in 2019?

ALL elementary and middle schools will be affected by this redistricting.

Q. Are the high schools involved in this redistricting?

No this is a K-8 redistricting. High school redistricting will be necessary three to five years from now.

Q. If my assigned middle school changes during this redistricting process, does it change my high school?

No, this is a K-8 redistricting. Your street address determines what schools you attend.

Q. Where can I direct redistricting comments and questions?

Questions and comments can be directed to info@dublinschools.net. Parents may email questions in their native language and the district will work to translate the questions and respond.

Future communication will be sent directly home to any address that is affected by this redistricting process.
